Monday's Game Off.

The game scheduled for Monday between the Wentworth first team and the faculty-alumni team has been called off. The large hospital list of the cadet squad and the prospect of a defeat at the hands of Missouri Wesleyan next Friday made the management decide to postpone the contest with the has-beens.

The old boys had worked up a formidable line up and several alumni from a distance had signified their intentions of coming. But rather than stand the chance of having some more of his men injured Coach Thacher thought it best to forego Monday's game.

Miss Lockhart's Recital.

A very appreciative audience listened to the piano recital given by several of Miss Lockhart's class Saturday evening, October 7, at the Methodist church.

The piano solos by Misses Morgan, Kinkead and Graham deserve special mention.

Misses Morgan and Kinkead who are Wellington girls, only fourteen years of age, showed decided talent. They each entered wholly into the spirit of their compositions and played with much expression, exact rhythm and easy graceful technique.

Miss Marcia Graham, the 10 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Graham of this city, has the name of being the best child pianist in Lexington. Her numbers were difficult for one of her age, but she surmounted all obstacles with ease and added one more laurel to her crown.

An enthusiastic applause followed the rendering of the merry little song by Master Edwin Taubman and Miss Mabel Bruns.

Little Miss Mabel was equally as good in her solo as she rocked her baby to sleep.

Of the ensemble numbers, the duet by Misses Oelschlager and Lockhart, and the brilliant trio by Misses Morgan and Kinkead, seemed the most pleasing to the audience.

Miss Lockhart, who is a graduate of Prof. Conrad, possesses unusual talent in music and much credit is due her for the training of her pupils. She has made marked success as a teacher of piano music and has a brilliant future in prospect.
